The Revelation of God

Introduction: God displays His nature in many ways. The writer of Hebrews informs us that in these last days God has manifested Himself in His Son (Hebrews 1: 3). Before that He declared Himself in nature and through His Word. Jesus says, "If you have seen Me you have seen the Father." (John 14: 9)

I. The Works of God

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the expanse proclaims the work of his hands. Day after day they pour out speech; night after night they communicate knowledge. There is no speech; there are no words; their voice is not heard. Their message has gone out to the whole earth, and their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun. It is like a bridegroom coming from his home; it rejoices like an athlete running a course. It rises from one end of the heavens and circles to their other end; nothing is hidden from its heat. Psalm 19: 1-6 CSB

- A. His invisible attributes
- B. His eternal power
- C. His divine nature

II. The Words of God

The instruction of the Lord is perfect, renewing one's life; the testimony of the Lord is trustworthy, making the inexperienced wise. The precepts of the Lord are right, making the heart glad; the command of the Lord is radiant, making the eyes light up. The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are reliable and altogether righteous. They are more desirable than gold—than an abundance of pure gold; and sweeter than honey dripping from a honeycomb. In addition, your servant is warned by them, and in keeping them there is an abundant reward. Psalm 19: 7-11 CSB

- A. Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips
- B. You shall meditate on it all the time
- C. For then you will make your way prosperous and have success

III. The Ways of God

Who perceives his unintentional sins? Cleanse me from my hidden faults. Moreover, keep your servant from willful sins; do not let them rule me. Then I will be blameless and cleansed from blatant rebellion. May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, Lord, my rock and my Redeemer. Psalm 19: 12-14 CSB
