

Isaiah 26 & 27

Worship the Lord,
Our King and Protector

Sunday, May 1, 2022

As we come to the end of this first section of Isaiah (Chapters 1 through 27), we enter into a special time of Judah's deliverance (and Israel). These chapters are meant to give hope to the nation during a time of oppression, but they actually refer to the end times when the Messiah returns to defeat all enemies and establish His Kingdom.

I. Judah's Trust in God and His Deliverance (26:1—27:1)

A. Judah Sings a New Song: Trust and Thanksgiving (26:1-8)

B. A city that has learned to be faithful

C. God Brings: Peace, He is our Rock, He levels our path, He judges righteously

II. A Lament While Waiting for Salvation (27:9-19)

III. God Will Arise and Slay the Dragon Leviathon

Revelation 13:1-10, The Dragon from the Sea

IV. A Song of God's Care for His Vineyard (27:2-13)

V. The Great Trumpet & the Gathering of Israel (27:12-13)

All will come to worship the Lord in His Holy Mountain in Jerusalem
